“...And Justice For All” Events

August 27, 2021

Join the Center for Africana Studies as we reflect on acts of injustice perpetrated throughout the African American community, in particular. This powerful pictorial exhibit, accompanied with a reflective discussion, is eye opening and thought provoking.

...AND JUSTICE FOR ALL

with Craig Butts

“...And Justice for All” is created and facilitated by Craig Butts, a local photojournalist, change agent, and “Citizen Witness”.

Often times it takes a major event or series of events to jolt someone out of an individualistic mindset. A need or call for solidarity will accomplish that. The exhibit, “...And Justice for All” seeks to look at solidarity as a nation of mourners come together for a common purpose of change. The idea of a community-centered purpose based on common feelings is the essence of solidarity.

In this exhibit, the stages of grief will be explored through the images captured in photographs. Stories are written on the faces, the signs, the postures of the people, etc.

Solidarity through a common cause: grief.
